	Red denotes missing scores and 5s issued

Thanks to Steve Jones, Ian Cole and Sam Reilly for setting out compact trial with some tricky sections using adverse cambers and twisty turns. The top half of the scores in each class were very close showing a good level of skills from experienced riders.

Experts Rowan and Jack only separated by 1 mark, Alan's only consolation in knowing he was the only one to clean the first part of Section 3 albeit having fluffed the end which he cleaned previous lap.

Tony Dobbs took Inters by a 4 mark gap with four riders close behind on 15,16,17. Charlie C besting Kev McC by furthest clean. Roger Strudwick won Clubman closely followed by Malcolm Noble 7 and a tie for 3rd & 4th

A few riders were classed as retired as they did not complete the score boards, but I understand that most simply enjoyed riding around the woods in lovely weather, and were not too worried about results.

Thanks to everyone who attended and Pat Puttock for Observing Section 4 and Sam for part observing No 3, I hope your head feels a lot better now! Next trial due 16 October, keep an eye out for Kev's email news, the website or Facebook
