Huge thanks to Derek S, Keith S and Richard T who slogged away on Thursday, in very hot weather, to clear the wood ready to set out Saturday morning with the additional help of Steve S and Charlie S. Good to see a youth rider learning the basics of setting out. A lower entry than usual, with a few keen visitors anxious to be involved. The sections used the full length of the wood and everyone, bar Frank, lost some marks. Dave wisely dropped down to Sportsman and survived the day without crashing for a change. Better for the nerves of those who worry on your behalf, and good that you still ride in your riper years! Henry had a lonely time on Experts, the usual suspects riding away on Sunday. Inters very close and Clubman even tighter. Good to see more youngsters on the yellow route, very brave on some drops and climbs. Good job it stayed dry as rain would have put the kybosh on the event. Thank to Pat for observing, and everyone who helped to pull the flags up. It speeds everything up and gets the early arrival team home a lot sooner. Next month is Cow Farm, see you there,
