The setting out survivors of Friday's deluge, Roger, Keith and Frank, reconvened early Saturday to create a further 7 sections aided and abetted by the reinforcements of Steve Stretton and Leigh Wright. Despite inches of rain the previous day the ground was remarkably dry and Roger feared several clean sheets for the day. He need not have worried, not one rider stayed clean all day, although Thomas M and Simon G stayed on 1 and Jack S and Malcolm N kept to 2. Ten sections worked very well and everyone got round fairly quickly with minimal queueing. Thanks to Pat and Frank Puttock for observing sections 1 and 2 to ease the flow and keep scores real. Good to see a few faces back after some absences, and also Steve J's grandson on his Oset. Charlie has a good day on the blues lowest score to date. Welcome to Martin Le Worthy who joined the club a couple of years ago, but was attending his first trial on foot. He has threatened to ride the next trial. The weather stayed kind despite the forecast for more rain, so happy riding. Derek S hope your leg starts to improve soon, I left the blue stapler in Roger's care to return to you!
